SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT

- As part of Anglo American, Peace River is committed to working together with our stakeholders – our investors, our partners and our employees – to create sustainable value that makes a real difference, while upholding the highest standards of safety and responsibility across all our businesses and geographies.

- Tumbler Ridge is located on the eastern slopes of the Canadian Rocky Mountains and sits on the edge of a vast, little-explored wilderness. Isolated, yet still accessible, the pristine mountain ridges and valleys around the town abound with rich natural resources and wildlife.
- Coal mining and tourism are the district's major industries.

REGIONAL PROFILE

- The majority of Peace River employees live in the town of Tumbler Ridge (population 3,300) which was established in 1981.

CULTURAL HERITAGE

- West Moberly First Nations, Saulteau First Nations, McLeod Lake First Nations and Kelly Lake Metis people are the traditional owners of Peace River.

Operations at Peace River continue year round.
